

1. Status of electronic submissions – numbers, types of actions, and benefits to Agency and registrants
2. Internal policy changes within RD regarding standard label format guidance for especially “Small containers”; e.g. placement of First Aid, et al.
3. Update on Spot-on pilot program
4. Update on NOA Pilot
5. Update on the status of various efficacy testing guideline revision, priorities of getting the various ones revised or new ones issued, and the impacts of PRIA4 set-asides on those efforts.
6. Electronic submissions, progress on the web portal
7. Quick update on smart labels

December 7 Meeting

A. Mark Goodis, Acting Director, RD

1. Topics

- a. How should EPA consider review of peer-reviewed literature data, which should have some value to support efficacy claims on EPA labels
- b. Status of electronic submissions – numbers, types of actions, and benefits to Agency and registrants.
- c. Internal policy changes within RD regarding standard label format guidance for especially “Small containers”; e.g. placement of First Aid, et al.
- d. Update on Spot-on pilot program
- e. Update on Notice of Arrival (NOA) pilot
- f. Update on status of various efficacy testing guideline revision, priorities of getting various one revised or new ones issued, and the impacts of PRIA 4 set asides on those efforts.
- g. Smart Label update
- h. Progress on the web portal and electronic submissions
- i. Inconsistent policies among the PMs